Profile

Audrey Chambers is an associate in the Seattle office of Scheer Law Group. Audrey's practice areas include construction defects, personal injury, and premises liability.

Audrey received her Bachelor of Arts in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from the University of Washington, Tacoma, with an emphasis on Law and Policy and a minor in Human Rights. She received her Juris Doctor from Seattle University School of Law. During law school, Audrey worked as a legal extern for the Appellate Division of the Thurston County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. She later worked as a judicial extern to the Honorable Jack Nevin of Pierce County Superior Court, Department 6. Audrey also participated in the Prosecution Clerkship at the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office where she was Rule 9 Licensed Legal Intern assigned to the Special Assault Unit.

In her free time, Audrey enjoys camping in the great outdoors of the Pacific Northwest, shredding the slopes at Stevens Pass on her snowboard, and sampling the great food and music of Seattle.
