Profile

Diane Cornell is of counsel at Scheer, Holt, Woods & Scisciani LLP's Seattle office. She practices in the areas of personal injury, construction defect, products liability and insurance defense. Prior to joining Scheer, Holt, Woods & Scisciani LLP, Diane was an Assistant Attorney General in the Seattle office for over 20 years. She defended and prosecuted on behalf of the Department of Labor and Industries in the areas of workers' compensation, third party, crime victims' compensation, work place safety (DOSH/WISHA), fraud, industrial insurance audit and regulatory compliance.

Diane received her J.D. degree from the University of San Diego School of Law. She received her B.A. in Political Science and Art History from Texas Christian University. While in college, she also studied a year abroad through the Institute of European Studies in Vienna, Austria.

Throughout her career, Diane has given back to the community and worn many different hats as a volunteer. She served as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for King County Superior Court and a Conference Committee Member for the King County Juvenile Court Diversion Program. She tutored underprivileged elementary students in the Bellevue and Redmond School Districts. She helped build homes in Tijuana, Mexico with Esperanza International and in Ensenada, Mexico with Homes of Hope. She is an attorney mentor
